N/A, Beverly Hills, CA

First time on the market in 55 years comes this majestically situated Grande Dame of a Mediterranean located in the flats of Beverly Hills. These opportunities so rarely come around. Architect Peter Choate added seamless design modifications and elements to this natural beauty. First floor: entry to splendid double living room with two wood-burning fireplaces, crown moldings and coffered ceilings, wet-bar, powder room, cozy library with its rich woods, built-in bookcases and wood-burning fireplace, formal dining room, breakfast room and pantry and great chef's kitchen. Most rooms on the first floor have French doors opening to a wonderful garden and pool area with pool house. Second floor: gallery library, office, two secondary bedrooms with Jack and Jill bathrooms, family room or playroom, housekeeper's room and spacious master bedroom with uniquely beamed ceilings, wood-burning fireplace and dual bathrooms and walk-in closets. There are French doors leading to a balcony overlooking garden and pool area. Other features include: hardwood flooring and pavers, stained glass windows and front and rear staircase. Great grounds, parking, curb appeal and prime Beverly Hills street, combine with interior features to be the perfect ingredients for this delicious home offered to you!
