N/A, West Hollywood,

Incredible opportunity to own an architectural townhome in one of West Hollywood's most desired complexes. Built by Award Winning architect, Ron Goldman, this residence is situated on the south end of the complex, with northern & southern exposures and skylights flooding the unit with natural light. This floor plan is highly coveted as it offers both a living room and family room as well as two, one-bedroom suites, each on different floors, creating much sought-after privacy. Additional unique elements are beautiful wood floors with in-laid concrete borders giving it a timeless architectural flair, and sleek floating ceilings with hidden lighting and horizontal/vertical air ducts which complete the modern, sophisticated look. The beautifully updated kitchen will likely get very little use as this property is situated steps away from the Sunset Strip and some of the best restaurants and nightlife in LA. Access to the building's fully-equipped gym with sauna and resort-style pool and spa complete the offering.

Built in 1975
