N/A, Malibu,

If the past three years have taught us anything, it's that life is short, and we need to make the most of every day. So how about this one...You wake up early at Longview to an unobstructed view of the Pacific. While lingering in bed to enjoy your coffee and email, you check out the waves at Surfrider, then grab your board for some world class shredding. Or maybe you'd prefer to head across the street for an ocean-view hike or jump on your bike to play tennis at The Racquet Club or swim laps at The Pepperdine Crest Club. When you're maxed out on endorphins, you slip into your private spa and watch the red-tailed hawks circle above, take a little nap, swinging in your outdoor hanging bed, do some work in your private hillside office or make a quick run to the farmers' market for locally grown produce and honey. Before you know, it's time for dinner at Nobu or Lucky's or dancing the night away at Soho House. At the end of the night, you fall asleep to the music of the waves as you try to figure out the difference between your real life and dreams. If this scenario sounds tempting, add to it, panoramic ocean views that include Catalina by day and the queen's necklace by night; three-quarters of an acre of exotic specimen trees, a spa bath and chef's kitchen, 2 fountains, 3 fire places, a fire pit, an enormous deck and exterior kitchen for large scale entertaining, all in a private setting that's less than five minutes from Malibu's shops and restaurants and only 20 minutes from town.

There's a reason a car, a rum, even a Barbie are named for the Malibu lifestyle. So, ask yourself...if not now, when?
