N/A, Venice,

Classic 1920s Venice bungalow artfully re-imagined with a cool prefab modular steel addition. Created by Jennifer Siegal's architecture firm Office of Mobile Design, this award-winning home has appeared on the cover of 'Dwell' magazine twice and was recently named by 'Dwell' as one of the "10 Best Modern Homes in Venice Beach." Immensely comfortable interiors are open and airy with solid white oak wide-plank floors, high ceilings, abundant light and garden views. A sun-filled cook's kitchen beckons you to gather, cook and celebrate. Everything opens to a spacious family room with oversized doors that delightfully bring the outdoors in. The backyard offers a large patio, sun deck, vegetable garden, dazzling spa and outdoor shower. A spectacularly beautiful stair tower of structural steel and wrapped with translucent panels ascend to a serene primary suite with high wood ceiling, Japanese soaking tub and steam shower. Atop the tower is a roof deck w/city views and the sea breeze. This unique environmentally conscious home is moments away from Abbot Kinney restaurants and boutiques, Rose Ave and Venice Beach.

Built in 1924
