Trinidad Island (HTRI), Huntington Beach,

A vision of timeless architecture “ presented in an exceptional waterfront estate. This true legacy property created by notable custom home builder Ken Bourguignon, embodies design and construction transcending time and trends. Enveloped by tri-channel views, the striking structure is a collection of rare materials and precision-crafted finishes that delight the senses. Every space of this remarkable home is a statement of refined design with an assemblage of rarely executed attributes including artfully laid stone wall cladding of Bouquet Canyon; impressive hand-hewn beams; intricately carved, imported Italian wood ceiling details; poured and polished concrete, and an abundance of exotic hardwoods and stones; a “floating”™ stair with glass surround; elevator accessibility; and a meandering atrium-to-interior Koi pond. The nearly 8,000 square-foot parcel is an accommodating environment with myriad gracious interior living areas replete with luxury amenities, as well as an expansive waterfront terrace crowned by a 186’™ private dock to accommodate a large vessel or multiple smaller craft. This never-to-be-replicated residence affords an extraordinary opportunity for stylish, sophisticated living “ in one of the region’s™ most desirable waterfront locations.
