Rose Park, Long Beach,

Imagine living in this charming two-story 1920s Craftsman home located in the heart of Rose Park Historic District. Youâ€™ll love the charming red accents and classic front porch, perfect for watching life go by or visiting with neighbors. Inside is a bright and airy living and dining area with vaulted ceilings, exposed beams, white oak floors, and a fireplace. There is easy access to the outdoor patio and yard from the dining room. The kitchen blends modern amenities with historic charm, featuring stainless steel appliances, a higher-end stove with a high BTU wok burner that any chef will love, custom oak cabinets with pull-out drawers, quartz countertops, and an enameled cast iron sink. A Miele stackable washer and dryer are tucked away behind the custom cabinets, and a wine fridge is hidden under the stairway, just some of the space-optimizing ideas that you will find. Just off the kitchen, a separate private patio offers a cozy spot to enjoy your morning coffee. Downstairs, you'll find a generously sized bedroom with a cedar-lined walk-in closet. The adjacent bathroom features a clawfoot tub and original built-in cabinetry. Upstairs, the renovated primary bedroom has dual pane, double hung windows, providing lots of natural light, and a luxurious en-suite bathroom with a double sink vanity and a spacious shower. The walk-in closet is equipped with a closet organizer, custom-built cabinetry, and a built-in hamper. Upstairs you will also find a den, presenting an ideal setting for a home office.

Outside is a lush private oasis, with a saltwater spa for relaxation and and a space for grilling, providing the perfect setting for entertaining guests. This home offers a new mini-split system, a tankless water heater, solar panels, a one-car garage, and thoughtful updates throughout. Nestled in the sought-after Rose Park neighborhood and centrally located within walking distance of restaurants, shops, parks, and more, this great home will not last. Schedule your viewing today.
