La Mesa, LA MESA, CA

If you have been looking for all the charm of a 1936 well built home on a very large lot, just a short distance from San Diego State University, this is the home for you. While an additional primary and bath have been added to the first 1936 structure, there is a finished two car garage, room for an ADU, and so much more. Simply personalize what is there, with room for all your imagined future needs. It's lovely to find a home just packed with what you want to save, as well as unlimited possibilities.

Built in 1936
