Nestor, SOUTH SD, CA

First time on the market in 21 years, this cherished corner-lot home in South San Diego offers a unique blend of warmth and potential, ready to welcome your family. Positioned on a peaceful street where neighbors share a strong sense of community, this residence is more than just a house—it's a foundation for your future happy home. Step onto the property and admire the lovingly redone stucco exterior, framed by an elegant picket fence with stone pillars. The enclosed concrete front yard is an ideal retreat for family gatherings or enjoying quiet moments under the sunny San Diego sky. Inside, the home radiates with natural light, thanks to dual pane windows, enhancing the light and bright feel that invites relaxation and togetherness. The layout encourages family time and easy living, while the added granny flat provides flexible space for extended family or serves as a source of rental income. Over the years, this home has been the backdrop to countless family memories, and now it awaits the next chapter with you. With thoughtful upgrades like a new hot water heater and fresh rain gutters, your focus can remain on making new memories. This property is a once-in-a-generation opportunity that's poised to be snapped up quickly. Schedule your visit today and see how this home can become the setting for your family's best memories yet.
