N/A, Laguna Beach, CA

Behold this rare Laguna Beach compound. From the minute you ascend through the waterfront hillside onto this gated, striking estate in Laguna Beach's coveted Temple Hills, you will know your destination is an architectural masterpiece created by the renowned Anders Lasater. Mindfully and deliberately designed with impeccable attention to every detail, the clean lines and cohesive blend of elements and textures will draw you in. With panoramic ocean views spanning to Catalina and beyond, this immaculate property is one-of-a-kind. State-of-the-art construction showcasing handcrafted and custom lighting, technology, accents and fixtures from the finest vendors around the globe comprise every inch of this home. Sleek lines and perfect angles measured with concise precision enhance the exceptional features of this grand estate. Rich walnut stairs juxtaposed against limestone floors complemented with gold and black fixtures create a perfect blend of Hollywood Hills Chic meets Contemporary Coastal warmth. This home is more than a house, it's a work of art. Each room was curated and designed to maximize the space, energy, and the gorgeous vistas from every window. Skylights bring in even more natural light. Sit poolside and take in the striking view where the tranquil infinity pool appears to flow directly to the Pacific. This home evokes the feeling of being at a private five-star resort with exceptional landscape designed by Michael Wilkes. Pamper yourself every day and marvel in the majesty and serenity of 648 Canyon View.
