Take in the breathtaking, expansive views as you enter unparalleled luxury within a Mark Singer, AIA,-designed masterpiece. 856 Diamond is a contemporary, approx. 4,420 square foot residence sited on a large lot in the heart of the Woods Cove neighborhood. Positioned with the unmatched coastline, Catalina, and city vistas in mind, this four-bedroom haven showcases the best of privacy and luxury. The main level wows with floor-to-ceiling glass surrounding the striking open living area anchored by a large island. The kitchen boasts all the desirable amenities, from top-of-the-range appliances, including a Hestan stove, to a discreet butler's pantry with additional storage. Several outdoor spaces on this level offer a multitude of al fresco entertaining options, all with incredible Pacific Ocean views as a backdrop. Dramatic in proportion, the living area flows seamlessly into the exterior dining patio, perfectly positioned near the water feature. The private primary retreat on this floor wows, with expansive windows effortlessly framing the city and water views beyond. Luxurious as it is practical, this suite encompasses a spacious bathroom with heated floors and a large walk-in closet. Entertainment takes center stage on the middle level of the residence. Here, a secondary living area with an adjacent deck and a movie projector promises unforgettable movie nights. Two of the secondary ocean-facing bedrooms feature attached bathrooms and access to the outside.

The fourth, currently used as an office, is a multipurpose space that can easily serve as a bedroom. Rounding out thi
