VILLAGE, La Jolla, CA

This stunning Andalusian Spanish on the 3rd fairway of the La Jolla Country Club offers amazing evening lights, golf course and ocean views from an extremely private yet village-close location. Situated on a level .35 acre cul de sac lot, the gorgeous estate opens through multiple sets of French doors to a central courtyard with Irving Gill inspired trellis work, a peaceful fountain and lush gardens including mature fruit trees and a replica Windansea beach belvedere hut. The interior of the Laura DuCharme designed/Rusty Johnson built home has a timeless aesthetic finished with the highest quality custom fixtures enhanced by a timeless Moroccan and Southern Spain inspired style. A formal living room beckons guests toward the captivating outdoors, while the professional chef's kitchen with its massive island opens to a walk-through pantry as well as a cozy family room, which draws you inside. Upstairs are 3 bedroom suites, one of which has its own private outdoor stairwell making it a perfect guest casita, and downstairs is a well appointed office with a powder room adjacent that could be converted into an additional guest suite. The 3-car garage leads to a gated side section of off-street parking which is in addition to the semicircular driveway, adding to the incredible curb appeal. Features such as the elevator to access all 3 upper level bedroom suites (and laundry), several beverage centers and wet bars, a dog washing station, areas for raised garden beds, multiple balconies, solar panels and 4 fireplaces lend to the luxurious comfort of living in such a fine property.
