Irvine Terrace, Corona del Mar, CA

Nestled in the vibrant community of Corona del Mar, just a stone's throw from the prestigious Newport Beach Golf Club, Balboa Bay Club, and Big Canyon Country Club, lies a meticulously designed residence crafted by renowned architect Eric Olsen. Featured prominently in design magazines and the Corona del Mar home tour, this single-level abode offers an unparalleled lifestyle. Drawing inspiration from the charm of an Italian countryside manor fused with modern coastal amenities, this residence epitomizes luxury living. Step into the voluminous great room, the heart of the home, perfectly positioned to seamlessly blend indoor and outdoor living. French doors adorn every corner, inviting in the coastal breeze and showcasing the lushly landscaped backyard. Entertain effortlessly on the stylish patio, complete with a captivating water/fire feature, built-in seating, and BBQ an ideal setting for gatherings. Spanning approximately 2,700 square feet, this home boasts three bedrooms, three and a half bathrooms, and an office, providing ample space for comfortable living. Reclaimed wood beams and accent walls exude warmth, while the culinary kitchen, featuring a fifteen-foot island, custom cabinetry, and vintage light fixtures, caters to the most discerning chef. Natural stone counters and wide plank solid wood flooring add to the elegant ambiance. The home comes equipped with an alarm system, AC unit, Viking stove, stainless steel refrigerator, and oven. The tranquil backyard offers plenty of trees and areas for gardening.

The inside features a wide-open floor plan with large vault
