Following nearly three decades of ownership by one family, Rancho San Bartolome is now available. Situated northeast of Paso Roble the heart of the Central Coast Wine Country Region this historic cattle ranch offers canyons, ridges, and valleys providing picturesque views amongst seasonal riparian corridors, creeks, and springs. In addition to the endless recreational advantages and abundant wildlife, Rancho San Bartolome boasts elaborate improvements. Comprising 3,044 contiguous acres of scenic, oak studded hillsides, Rancho San Bartolome is a rural environment with both open meadows and vegetated oak woodlands. Situated directly west of Lake San Antonio near the southern border of Monterey County, this working cattle ranch affords a buyer with a true turnkey opportunity, complete with multiple homes, barns, various agricultural buildings, corrals. Beyond seasonal water resources, Rancho San Bartolome includes wells, springs and reservoirs providing both stock and domestic water. The improvements on Rancho San Bartolome are extensive. There are four residences, two guest cottages, two garages, at least ten barns/accessory buildings, two swimming pools, three spas, sizeable deck and patio space, pens, corrals, and a chapel.
