"Sunset Palisades", Pismo Beach, CA

Welcome to an unparalleled oceanfront experience at 307 Indio Drive, where a majestic mid-century gem graces the edge of the sea bluff. This property, in the family for over half a century, is a sanctuary of beauty with its exceptional landscaping that feels like an oceanfront park. The home boasts a private gated entrance leading to a six-car driveway and additional garage space, ensuring privacy and exclusivity. Revel in the expansive ocean views from multiple outdoor living areas spread across a generous 15,015 square foot lot, offering a seamless blend of grandeur and intimacy. The interior of this home is a tribute to mid-century design with modern updates that honor its heritage. The open main living floor plan, updated in 2000, offers floor-to-ceiling windows framing the sweeping ocean vistas from Port San Luis to Point Sal. On the same level is a spacious primary bedroom with a balcony, a dual vanity bathroom, and walk-in closet that exemplify the home's thoughtful design. The lower level features two additional bedrooms, a shared bathroom, and a den with a kitchenette perfect for guests or as a separate living space. Immerse yourself in the serene embrace of the Pacific at this Shell Beach treasure, offering a rare connection to the coastal splendor. With a history dating back to 1962, the exterior of this home features a large yard with various patios, including a bluff patio and a designated BBQ area, creating a perfect backdrop for both grand entertaining and tranquil relaxation.
