Welcome to The Estates at Trump National Golf Course, an exclusive coastal haven of unparalleled luxury surrounded by nature reserves and an award-winning golf course. This 2019-built masterpiece seamlessly blends Spanish-style charm with cutting-edge modern design by Doug Mottram of "Build By Design," taking luxury living to unprecedented heights. Revel in breathtaking views of the Pacific Ocean, Catalina Island, and Trump National Golf Course that grace every corner of this exceptional 6-bed, 6.5-bath estate. Through the impressive 12 wrought iron front door crafted by Pinkys, a breathtaking living, dining, and kitchen space unfolds before you. The focal point is an exquisite glass-covered wine showcase, complemented by a generously expansive dry bar, creating an unforgettable ambiance. With over 6,100 sq ft, the home showcases a gourmet kitchen with a massive leathered marble island, top-of-the-line Thermador appliances, and additional features like a butler's pantry with a built-in coffee maker and dry bar. Every detail, from soaring ceilings to high-end finishes, such as rose gold Brizo fixtures, Italian Macassar Ebony cabinetry, and leathered carrara marble, infuse a coastal glam decor with contemporary sophistication guaranteeing comfort and quality. The open dining and living areas, covered outdoor space and a pool create the quintessential California lifestyle setting. The four gliding pocket doors seamlessly connect the home to the 375 sq ft covered California room boasting a built-in BBQ and tiled floor.

The expansive backyard with its elegant pool, spa, built-in
