Malaga Cove, Palos Verdes Estates, CA

Embrace the History of Palos Verdes Estate in this charming 1924 Old Spanish home, noted as building Permit #1. Nestled on a tree lined street in Malaga Cove and offering a peek of ocean views, the home exudes timeless charm and character, reminiscent of a bygone era. The architecture reflects the Old Spanish style with white washed stucco, terracotta-tiled roof and exterior stone work. Inside, you step into a warm and inviting atmosphere with a fusion of modern living and rustic design features. Accented with wood beams and a stone fireplace the living room is perfect for entertaining. The kitchen is a chef's haven with a blend of a stunning remodeled design that captures an old world charm. Extending off the kitchen is cozy family room with fireplace and high wooden beamed ceilings. The bedroom wing features 2 spacious bedrooms and a remodeled bathroom. The Primary suite is a quaint retreat and offers an ocean and pastoral view along with a wonderfully designed walk in closet and remodeled bathroom. Outside, the meandering grounds offer hidden alcoves and patios for a relaxing outdoor experience. In every corner of the enchanting Old Spanish style home, a sense of history and tranquility permeates the air, inviting residents to embrace the timeless beauty of Palos Verdes Estates.
