La Costa Valley, Carlsbad, CA

Introducing 2182 Corte Mango: More than a house, it's a cherished home that has embraced countless memories for the sellers and their loved ones over the years. As you step foot into this newly renovated home, you'll be engulfed in the bright and airy open floor concept that's been freshly painted with brand new flooring. Easily enter from the family room through pocket sliding glass doors into the backyard, where you can enjoy the resort style private oasis, with plenty of space to shoot hoops, and enjoy delightful barbecues with family and friends. The cul-de-sac served as a stage for children's laughter and friendship without worries of drive through traffic. And just a short 5-minute journey, El Camino Creek grade school became a beloved destination for family strolls before and after school. With its ideal location, everything you need is within reach. Stater Bros, Target, restaurants, banks, and an array of fantastic stores like Lulu Lemon, Mac Store, Tillys, Urban Outfitters, and Nike are just a short walk away at The Forum Shops. Situated close to the stunning beaches including the captivating Ponto Beach, you can revel in the coastal lifestyle in just a 7-minute drive. La Costa Valley also offers a network of secure and pristine walking trails, allowing you to stay active. Or head on over to the HOA Valley Club to enjoy tennis, parks and water enjoyment with neighbors and friends. Now is your chance to become part of the story. Welcome home!
