Mission Hills, San Diego, CA

Welcome home to this timeless 1930s Spanish Colonial Revival home located on an idyllic tree-lined street in one of the most coveted pockets of North Mission Hills, just blocks from neighborhood parks, shops, restaurants, and more! This charming home enjoys a versatile, reversed floorplan that includes a formal living room, dining room, and spacious kitchen with island and balcony on the main level, plus an additional informal living room on the lower level that features custom built-ins and a wall of French doors that open to the spacious backyard. The main level also includes the spacious primary suite with two walk-in closets and a beautifully renovated en-suite bathroom, plus an additional bedroom and a half-bath for guests. The lower level includes a secondary primary suite with a walk-in closet and newly updated bathroom, as well as an office, a 200+ wine cellar, a laundry room, and multiple walk-in closets and storage rooms. While the home's classic Spanish architecture is oozing with old-world charm, the interior is much more catered to modern living, with amenities like central HVAC, built-in speakers, a security system with hardwired cameras, and top-of-the-line appliances. Enjoy San Diego's quintessential indoor-outdoor lifestyle with multiple rooms that provide access to the front and back porches, the spacious balcony, and the lushly landscaped front and back yards with outdoor living spaces, low-maintenance plants and turf, sprinkler systems and drainage. The home also features an attached one-car garage with back-door access to the kitchen from the balcony, a
