BACK ON MARKET! If you missed it the first time, you have a second chance at a beautiful home in this SENIOR park that is in high demand!! Well-maintained home that shows pride of ownership. Built in 1992, this Goldenwest home has had many improvements in the last 5 years including: new grey plank-style flooring, new roof, new garage enclosure, new AC and heating and ducting, new water heater, new oven faucets and sinks, and cabinets have been updated. There is a separate third room with built-in bookshelves currently being used as a den/office. It has a beautiful kitchen with ample cupboards. The master bath is gigantic, with two individual sink stations, a large tub and a separate step-in shower. There is a spacious laundry room. Two sheds on the side yard provide extra storage. There are two gorgeous blooming plumeria trees, one in front and one in back, along with a bearing lemon tree. There is a separately owned Club Car that may be purchased. The Meadows is a very nice, gated community with reasonable rent, not raised often. This home is in a prime location at the back of the park at the end of a very quiet and private cul-de-sac with two guest parking spaces directly in front. Senior community 55+. Irvine has been one of the nation's safest cities for 15 years. Space rent is variable depending on income.

Built in 1992
