5 Bedroom, 3.00 Bathroom, 2,949 sqft

Residential on 1 Acres

N/A, Rancho Palos Verdes, CA

Inspired by SoCal's romantic past this custom built Colonial Spanish home recently remodeled is secreted near the end of a long private lane far from the madding crowd. At nearly 3000 sqft on one level (a few minor internal stairs) and set high above and well back from the lane below the sense of privacy reigns quietude as well as magical vistas of Mountains, city, harbor and open ocean bookended by DTLA and Catalina Island. Subtle homage to history certainly in the home's long colonnade, soaring open beam ceiling, tiled roof and flooring and magnificent one of a kind drystone style floor to ceiling Family room fireplace. But a home also unhesitatingly modern and bright as well with impressive oval foyer, sunken living room glowing with architectural detailing, an oh so contemporary circular formal dining room with wall to ceiling windows taking full advantage of the view and a bright modern kitchen awash in cabinetry, counter space and informal dining. Beyond is as inviting and spacious a family room as one might expect to find in Jackson Hole's tonier resorts. There is however no disconnect; the floorplan flows handsomely; a large ensuite master bedroom with view and sitting room at one end, a spacious bright hall leading to 4 other large bright bedrooms one of which is currently utilized as an impressive office with French slider, a large well appointed laundry room and very impressive living rm on the other end. Several access points lead out into a truly lovely bright and very private yard with mature shade trees, some fruit bearing, a large patio as well as grassy are

Built in 1965
