A Historic Landmark

Transform this historic landmark into your own private getaway or new venture opportunity. Currently operated as a wedding venue, the property has served as a private residence, restaurant/bar, and hotel in the past, and awaits your vision.

Let nine authentic Old West quarters, complete with modern luxuries, as well as historic saloon, ballroom, and numerous amenities, play host to your gatherings.

The town of Los Alamos was founded in 1876, when the stagecoach line was rerouted through the area. Four years later, the 1880 Union was built as a stagecoach home station complete with store and lodging. It burned down in 1893, but was rebuilt in 1915 as a hotel and saloon. In 1972, the Union was restored to its original condition

Built in 1915
