Residential on 1 Acres

15 - Las Canoas/El Cielito, SANTA BARBARA, CA

Impeccably maintained and ideally situated within the Las Canoas neighborhood of Santa Barbara, resides this Mediterranean masterpiece, presenting 4 bedrooms, 4.5 bathrooms and sensational views of the Pacific Ocean, Channel Islands, and Santa Ynez Mountains. Designed by Westlake Village Architect Stephen V Harrel, the property was custom built in 1997 focused with the purpose of capturing the mountain, ocean, island and city views through an optimized floor plan and custom luxury details. The oak studded, one acre property is beautifully tucked into the hillside, offering privacy, a security gate, and an endless array of mature plantings and trees. The pristine residence welcomes you in with an opulent foyer featuring high ceilings, custom crown moldings, and custom lighting ideal for showcasing art. The thoughtfully designed kitchen is at the heart of the home, offering a large center island with granite countertops, ample cabinet and storage space including a walk-in pantry, double oven, built-in refrigerator, gas cooktop and jaw-dropping views of La Cumbre Peak over the picturesque pool setting. Cozy family room offering wet bar with iconic views overlooking the pool and mountain offers a private patio area that invites the outdoors into the home. Spacious primary suite boasts sitting area, sizable closet room, private bath, and a scenic ocean view balcony. Additional amenities include: 4th bedroom guest suite that offers a kitchenette, private bath, plus separate entrance; spacious 3 car garage with interior access and plenty of storage area; rooftop viewing deck offering 360-degree views of the city, ocean, island, and mountains; sizable laundry room; ample storage closets and storage room.

Built in 1997
