2 Bedroom, 3.00 Bathroom,
Residential on 0 Acres

Russian Hill, San Francisco, CA

1703 floats above the City and Bay. Enveloped by Bay water views, all glass exteriors capture breathtaking 270 degree vistas from every room. Originally a 3-bed floorplan, 1703 was transformed in a visionary collaboration with renowned architect John Maniscalco and designer ODADA/David Oldroyd. The captivating open layout maximizes views, light and expansiveness. Hidden pocket and blind doors provide privacy options. High-end lighting in every part of the space create drama and richness. A grand primary suite offers spa-like bath, custom closets, panoramic views, a lounge and adaptable configuration (as another bedroom). A media room/library provides a retreat for lounging or work (optional bedroom). High-end technology abounds: Lutron programmable lights and shades; hidden James speakers in rooms; European hydronic heating; a Savant system controlling lighting, sound, media. A custom glass wine cave, a seamlessly-integrated terrace. Kitchen features high-end appliances, custom lighting, zen design features. Building amenities are unparalleled: 24/7 staff; fitness center; heated pool w/retractable roof; multiple lounges, bar, private dining area; guest parking. With 3 homes per floor, parking, private laundry and 3 storage areas, this residence epitomizes quintessential SF living.
