3 Bedroom, 2.00 Bathroom, 1,935 sqft
Residential on 0 Acres

Mission Terrace, San Francisco, CA

Welcome to 753 Cayuga Avenue. This lovely single-family home has been updated and retains its original charm from 1926 with natural light, beautiful hardwood floors, and double-paned windows. The living room has a classic wood-burning fireplace and original built-in cabinets. The adjoining formal dining room has matching exquisite crown molding. The updated kitchen has new quartz countertops, a gas range, a stainless steel dishwasher, and ample storage. There are two roomy bedrooms on the top floor - one opens onto a deck with stairs down to the private yard and a majestic redwood tree. The split bath features a half bath and a separate room for a sink and shower over the tub. The lower level has a primary suite that opens into the garden and a family room with a new wet bar. This area can be used separately from the top floor. The spacious garage has built-in storage areas, a custom-made workbench, and a laundry drying rack. Mission Terrace is a special neighborhood, family-friendly and community-oriented; with a dedicated neighborhood association, recurring block parties, and monthly events. The home sits on a slow street", level for easy walking (91 walk-score), bike riding, and quick access to local dining, cafes, shopping, freeways, and superb public transportation.

Built in 1926
